Dear Syd and Judy:

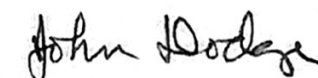

Congratulations on successfully planning and leading the bike trip across country. What a wonderful way to celebrate this bicentennial year!

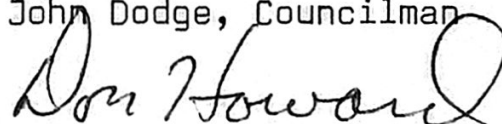

It took a great deal of courage and faith to undertake a trip of this sort. We commend you for it and our buttons are just poppin' with pride in the achievement of the group. You all coped with the frustrations of flat tires, mosquitos, heat and humidity, dry winds and bone weariness to reach your goal and to cover those thousands of miles from Washington to Washington. We hope everyone enjoyed representing Battle Ground - and Mars!

So now we welcome you back to this special green corner of our land - - back from our neighboring states of Oregon and Idaho, back from the mountains and prairies of Wyoming and Colorado, the flatlands of Kansas, the Ozark country of Missouri, the cornfields of Illinois and Indiana, the farms and urban centers of Ohio and Pennsylvania, and back from that other "Washington" of historical and political significance. Andy Hansen's hill may not be the challenge it once was, but you and the biking group will find other challenges - - we're sure of that.

WELCOME, HOME!
